BARONS KNOCK CHICKS OFF FIRST

Take Sunday Game at Russwood Four Runs to Three in Great Battle-Shortstop Blades Hurt.

BY BOB PIGUE.

Before the biggest crowd of the year, the Birmingham Barons bumped the Memphia Chicks out of a tie for first place here Sunday afternoon by winning over the Tripe of McCloskey four runs to three-jec Coffindaffer pitched for the Barons until the seventh, when the Chicks seriously threatened, and then Lefty Sigman appeared on the scene, putting the final screws upon for the day.

for the day.

Dazzy Vance, the strikeout king, pitched for Memphis, and harled well He fanned eight of the Barona retiring the side on strikes in the eighth, Sigman, Stewart and Stevenson whifting Coffindaffer was wild, but sensational support palled him out of several tight places. Especially did Meeks in right field play a sensational game. In the second inning with two Tribesmen aboard and two out, Meeks went to the fence and overhanded Carroll's drive in the third with two trare Chicks on the runways. Meeks ran down Blades drive that to he is all for at least two bags.

BLADES INJURED.

Shortstop Blanes, of the Chicks, was seriously hurt in the eighth when he slid into the plate and was blocked by Peters. Blades was carried from the fleid and to a beapt at, having sustained a badly fractured leg.

The Chicks got out in front, counting in the first inning. Carroll walked and Lewis saurational. Sloam walked and while Griffin was forving Sloam at second Dixie counted. The Barons took the lead in the second. Ellis dropped a Texas leaguer back of short and Griffith follow d with a two-bagger lote the left field crowd. Meeks fanned, but Croll dropped a fluky single back of first that world both Baron runners.

BERNSEN HITS HOMER.

BERNSEN HITS HOMER.

In the third with two out Bernsen hit a home run over the right field wall. The Barons counted the taily necessary to win in the sixth. Stevenson opened with a two-bagger and Bernsen bunted him to third. Ellis sacrifice fly to Carroll brought Steve over. In the ninth the Barons threatened, but were unable to hit in the pinches. Bernsen opened with a two-bagger and Ellis bunted to McLarry, the Chick first baseman tossing to High too late to get Bernsen and with all hands being safe. Griffith hit to Collenberger and Bernsen was caught in a chase, being naited by High. Meeks forced bills at the plate, Lewis to Bischoff. Croll pupped to Lewis and the round was over.

In the eighth when Sigman relieved Coffindaffer with two runners aboard. Siggie pitched only me ball to High, who hit it back at the Baron left-hander and was an easy out at first.

Tod Stoan, ex-Baron outfielder shared the fielding spotlight with Meeks by making a circus catch of Griffith's drive to left. Stoan doing a Brodie after catching the ball.

CHICKS' SECOND RUN.

The Chicks got their second run the third when Lewis doubled into the growd and Sloan singled to center the eights Carroll opened with a dout to center and Lewis singled off se-ond. Carroll being held at third Slo ond. Carroll being held at third, should forced Lewis at second with carroll retaining third. Griffin forced Sloan at second and Carroll still held third McLarry came up and annacked the ball to the right field heards, scoring carroll and Griffin reaching, third. It was here that Coffindaffer retired in favor of Bernard.

Memphis ...

With their wings closely cropped, the Chicks left Memphis Sunday night for Mobile, where they are due to open with Bob Coleman's Bears Monday afternoon, in the first of a three-game series.

Manager McCloskey said he would depend upon Hugh Canavan or Tiny Goodbred in the opener.

Manager Bob Coleman has saved Dick Ching, a left-hander, for the Chicks, having learned that the left-handed batting array of Chicks is not so effective when a portsider is pitching. Ching is one of the best left-handers in the league, and is being used in the hope of boosting the Bears are tied with Birmingham at present, with the Chicks a game behind, due to their four day retreat.

BOB PIGUE

Following the Mobile series, the Thicks will make their first invasion of New Orleans, playing four games with the Policans, winding up Sunday night.
The Chicks will return to Memphia or Monday. May 17, and open with the Mobile Bears in the first of a four-series home stay.

NEED TWO PITCHERS.

NEED TWO PITCHERS.

I must have two more pitchers," sighed Chief John J. McCloskey, of the Chicks, Sunday, just before the Tribe took the field against the Birmingham, Barons. "If we are to keep in the race, we must have two more pitchers to help Hugh Canavan, Dazzy Vance and Pat Albris along. We can't get by with our present staff."

The Chicks are at present making an effort to strengthen the pitching staff, and it is understood that they are especting the two new hurlers to join the club this work. When they arrive, it will mean the curtain for Tiny Goodbred and Bill Thweatt, it is said by the Chick officials. Hy Fowlkes, the young Dyersburg right hander, is to be retained for a time to be given a more thorough trial.

MACK NOT DOWNCAST.

Chief McCloskey, while very naturally lisappointed at the showing of the blicks during their past four starts, when they have lost four games, is not when they have lost four games, is not downcast.

"We'll get going again soon," said Mack, "and the other clubs are going to know we are in the race to stay. We have experienced a sort of let-down after our drive for first place, and the boys are nor hitting the ball like they have been during the past couple of weeks, before the last four games we have played.

"My bitching staff has caused me considerable worry and as soon as I can holster it, I am confident we will climb back into the front seat of the Dixie betrefitage column."

Sunday's game, between the Barons and Chicks was a heartbreaker, and should have been won in every inning with the exception of the fourth and ninth, when no Tribesmen were aboard. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

The crowd was handled better than for some time, and there was less con-fusion than usual.

MEEKS A ROBBER.

MEEKS A ROBBER.

Right Fielder Meeks, of the Barons, pulled a couple of daring robberies Sunday that would make Jesse James and Wm. S. Hart toss their "gats" into the nearest sewer, and head for the nearest Sunday school.

It was Meeks who won the ball game for the Barons, and kept the Chicks from winning it. Two drives that went into right field that were ticksted apparently for safe territory, were rundown and collared by Meeks, who made circus catches of them both.

Meeks robbed Blades of what looked to be a two-bagger in the second, with two Chicks on, and in the first he gave Polly McLarry a dose of the same medicine.

Both catches were great and undoubtedly saved Joe Coffindaffer's hide.

Catcher John Peters, of the Barons, gave an exhibition of how a catcher should block a base runner off the bag in the eighth, when he successfully blocked Pay 10.4 bag in the eighth, when he successfully blocked Ray Blades, and tagged him ent Blades was injured, but is was no fault of Peters, who was making the play as it should have been made.

All good cutchers block a runner coming in, and Peters happened to be stronger than Blades, with Blades coming out with a sprained leg.

Has was carried from the field, but was able to leave with the Chicks for Mobile Sunday night.

Deems Vance hurled a much better game than Coffindaffer, but his mates were not as liberal with base hits as moual, and Dazay couldn't get by with a victory.

FORTING MARTINELLI FACES

Johnny Heiderer Will Be Most Seasoned Foe Gene Has Tackled--Gans Will Attempt to Regain Lost Laurels.

BY COYLE SHEA.

Gene Martinelli will face the most seasoned entry of his career Monday night when he takes on Johnny Holderer, of Milwaukes, in one-half of the double windup that features the weekly card at the Southern A. C. In the other chaggement Kid Roux, of Memphis, legitimate colored lightweight champlo mate colored lightweight champion of the world, will meet Joe Gans, of New Orleans, detironed king. New Orleans, dethroned king.
Owing to recent successes, accomplished mainly by a murderous right.
Martinelli will rule a slight favorite over the invader, who makes his second appearance in a local ring. Odds of 7-5, offered by Martingali adherents have been taken freely by Heiderer supporters and every indication points to a whirtwind battle to a decisive finish.

Martinelli will depend upon a rushing tigle to carry him through, and Heiderer will rely upon experience and suserior boxing skill. In any event both arries in the skill will endeaver to reeve each other of prominent austomical eatures as quickly and as victously as

Loft, of New York. In fourth place came Whitney's Damask, and fifth was Donnacons, one of the advance favorities for the race and the Loft chief reliance.

The stake, the richest on the American turf, had a total gross value of $46,925. The net value to the winner was $30,375. The owner of the second horse received $4,000 and the third $2,000. Damask saved his stake, which included $25 to nominate and $25 to start.

Once more the east triumphed in the Kentucky classic.

In a way the race was a repetition of last year's, when Sir Barton won for Commander J. K. L. Ross, beating Billy Kelly, with which Ross had expected to win. This year Capt. Parrhad expected to win with Blazes, but sent Paul Jones to the post also.

Paul Jones won, while the best Blazes could do was sixth. It was a terrific finish between Paul Jones and Upset as they drove down the stretch to the wire four lengths ahead of On Watch.

Urging their mounts to the last nerve, plying whip and riding band and knee to win one of the turf's most cherished prizes. Jockey T. Rice, on Paul Jones, and Rodriguez, on Upset, staged a grand battle and put on the most thrilling finish since that of 24 years ago between Ben Brush and Ben Eder.

years ago between Ben Brush and Ben Eder.

Staggering along behind them, having done their best, came the other 15 of the gallant band of three-year-olds that bad paraded proudly to the post a few moments before.

Paul Jones led from start to finish. He got off in the lead and was pushed steadily along by Rice. "Those watching the race waited for him to crack, but he held steadily on. Upset was up well all the way and made his run on the stretch. He came with a great burst of speed and steadily gained on Paul Jones. The Whitney champions cheered madly as they thought they saw victory for their stable, but Paul Jones had enough left to win by a head.

The time—2:99—was only fair, as the track had dried out and was fast.

Trailing the four leaders were Bonnacona, Blazes, By Golly, Wildair, Bersagliere, Patches, Herron, Sandy Beal, Prince Pal, David Harum, Cleopatra, Peace Pennant and Sterling in the order named.

DELTA LEAGUE PLANNED.

JACKSON, Miss., May 10.—If plans for the organization of a Delta league are worked out, Mississippi will soon witness a revival of organized baseball after an absence of 10 years. Five towns all in the Delta section, already have the organization of teams under way and Jackson's entry is practically assured. The towns are: Charleston, Belzoni, Greenwille, Greenwood and Clarksdale. The season is scheduled to open June 3 and end Aug. 31.
